

Easter card and note. It's so wonderful to be remembered. You are very thoughtful about holidays, birthdays, holy days etc.

I was home for Easter and was so glad I was because Ma telephoned and we enjoyed a chat. This coming Saturday, a son of her boss is being married and her boss has insisted she ~~photo~~ take the wedding pictures altho she doesn't want to. She says she studies each picture so is too slow for taking snapshots. I'm sure she'll do a fine job. A friend of mine, Elizabeth Payne, a retired art worker at the
